

Call for Abstracts

The Virginia League for Nursing (VLN) 2024's Annual Meeting and Conference theme is Making an Impact in Nursing Education. The Annual Meeting and Conference will be held at James Madison University and virtually on April 27, 2024. The VLN invites abstracts describing curricular structure, pedagogical initiatives, and/or evaluation strategies that incorporate the conference theme. Some topics of interest include:

- Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity
- Competency Based Education
- Clinical Hours and Placement Strategies
- Clinical Judgment/Models/Assessing and Measuring Clinical Judgment
- Next Generation NCLEX
- Resilience
- Hybrid/Face to Face/Online Pedagogies

Submission Format: Abstracts should not exceed 300 words. The abstract should include background information, address methods, and best practice recommendations for those considering a similar approach.

- Title, name of presenter(s), and credentials (not included in word count)

Included in Word Count:

- Problem/Purpose
- Background
- Strategies/Methods/Results
- Best Practice Recommendations

Not included in Word Count:

- 2-3 Learner Objectives
- Note if you would like to do a live or pre recorded presentation
- Note if you would like a poster or podium presentation
- Note if you consider doing a poster presentation if not chosen for a podium presentation

Please submit the abstract via this VLN 2024 Conference Abstract Submission link. All abstracts must be submitted on or before March 22, 2024.

Each abstract will be blinded and peer reviewed by a panel. Presenters will be notified about the status of their submission via email no later than March 29, 2024. Kindly direct questions to Andrea Reed agreed@vcu.edu or Christine Turner ChristineTurner@rmc.edu.

We look forward to considering your abstract for presentation and seeing you at the conference!
